Descendants of John Trussell

Generation No. 1

1. COL. JOHN¹ TRUSSELL¹ was born Abt. 1605 in England², and died Bef. Jan 20, 1659/60 in Northumberland Co., VA. He married MARY CLAUGHTON Bef. 1640. She was born Aft. 1611.

Notes for COL. JOHN TRUSSELL:

Trussell

"Trussell, also frequently recorded as Trussel, was the surname of an ancient Norman family The old French 'troussel' from which the name derives, means 'a fardle, bundle or bunch' and may have originally been used as a nickname for a hunch back." Fardle, as a noun means a bundle or pack, hence a burden, misfortune; as a verb, to make up in bundles. Bunch, as a noun, means a hump, a protuberance, a knob or bump. (Webster's)

The first known Trussell in England came with William the Conqueror from Normandy and took part in the Battle of Hastings in 1066. The name is listed in the Roll of Battle Abbey. This was "a memorial erected about seven miles distant from Hastings, in fulfillment of a vow made by the Conqueror prior to the battle which won for him the diadem of England. Within a year, the foundation was laid on the very spot where the battle of Hastings had been fought." A monastery, richly endowed by William, was built "to accomodate one hundred and forty monks, but provision appears to have been made for sixty only. The first community, a society of Benedictines came from Marmonstier in Normandy, and were enjoined to pray for those who died in battle, and to preserve a faithful record of all who shared in the glory of the victory." Among the names that appear on the Roll of Battle Abbey was Trussell. (Burke)

The Trussells were of knightly rank from their first establishment in England. The most distinguished personage of the name was the famous William Trussell, who was in such estimation with the Commons in convention assembled, as to be chosen their organ to pronounce the deposition of the unfortunate Edward II, which duty he executed in the following words: "Ego Wm Trussell, vice omnium de Terra Anglias et totius Parlamenti procurator, tibi Edwardo reddo homagium prius tibi factum et ex tunc diffido te, et privo omne potestate regia et dignitate, nequaquam tibi de caetero tanquam regi periturus.1' The subsequent career of this distinguished statesman, occupies a prominent place in the history of the eventful time in which he lived. At one period, an exile from the hostility of the Mortimers, he was at another the trusted favourite of the King from whom he received the dignified office of Admiral of the Fleet, and had summons to Parliament as a Baron, 25th Feb 1342. His Lordship seems to have left no descendants. (Ibid)

This last statement is incorrect. Trussells can be found in the English records from the Battle of Hastings in 1066 to the present day. Trussells held the manor of Billesly in Warwickshire which was granted by William the Conqueror. Trussell descendants lived there for several hundred years. The manor is no longer owned by any Trussell descendant. Trussells can be traced back in England for at least seventeen generations before the first Trussell came to America in 1622.

It was William the Conqueror who began a system of counting the English people called Visitations. These were recorded by Shires. Early Trussells can be found listed in the Visitations of Warwickshire. Names of wives are usually given and frequently names of children. Visitations can provide valuable clues for researchers.

JOHN TRUSSELL, IMMIGRANT

John Trussell came to Virginia in 1622 in the ship Southampton from England, his passage paid by Captain Thomas Paulett, along with thirty-seven others. For transporting these individuals, Thomas Paulett and his brother, Chiffock Paulette, received a patent of 2000 acres in Charles City County on 15 January 1637 (Nugent)

The Muster Rolls of Settlers in Virginia listed: Mr Thomas Rowlett's Muster: Thomas Rowlett (Paulett), age 40 years, in the Neptune, in August 1618. Servant: John Trussell, aged 19 years, in the Southampton, 1622. (Hotten) A list of names of the living in Virginia February the 16th 1623 shows that both Thomas Paulett and John Trussell were living at 'West and Shrilow Hundred'. ([bid])

"A Survey shows that in the class of indented white servants there was a wide range of gradation, from thrifty redemptioners and gallant rebels at the one extreme down to ruffians and pick pockets at the other." Some of the white freedmen succeeded in attaining high social status, working their way up to ownership of plantations. "In the seventeenth century they were occasionally elected to the House of Burgesses." One of these was John Trussell of Northumberland County who had been a servant brought over in 1622, age nineteen. (Fiske)

"The Census of 1624-25 forms a good starting point for a study of the classes of emigrants to Virginia, for by that time the colony had assumed, in a rudimentary way, its later form. The Census shows many names of men long afterwards active in colonial affairs- There were then in Virginia six hundred and eight free people, four hundred and fifty-seven white servants, and twenty three negroes. Of the freemen, twenty-five left descendants in well-known families which can be traced to the present day and eight of the servants were ancestors of Virginia families of some standing. While no doubt very many of the servants named in this Census were laborers and menials, it is plain that many others were of a different grade from those brought over later. On account of the small amount of land which could be cultivated in Virginia, there was not in the early days that intense desire for labor which later caused numerous examples of kidnapping in England and the shipping to the colony of people gathered in the streets of London. Among the thirty servants, of whom a little is known, John Trussell, who settled in Northumberland County and became a burgess and colonel of militia." (Stanard, N.M.)

1. Col. John¹ Trussell was born Abt. 1605, and died Bef. 20 Feb 1659/60 in Northumberland Co., VA. He married Mary Claughton Bef. 1640. She was born Aft. 1611.

Notes for Col. John Trussell:

Adventurers of Purse and Person, revised and edited by Virginia M. Meyer (1974-1981) and John Frederick Dorman, FASG (1981-1987); Published by Order of First Families of Virginia, 1607-1624/5 (Third Edition 1987)

"John Trussell came to Virginia, 1622, in the Southampton and was listed, 1623/4, at West and Shirley Hundred, in what is now Charles City County. He was living there, 1624/5, aged 19, with Thomas Paulett when the muster was taken. On 12 Oct. 1635 he patented 200 acres in Elizabeth City County near the Back River and adjoining John Grew. This patent was surrendered and renewed in the name of John Graves. At Elizabeth City on 25 Jan. 1638/9 he deposed he was aged 36 or thereabouts. At the same time Samuel Nichols deposed that John Trussell had been undersheriff of Elizabeth City County and as such had sold the goods of Thomas Lee at outcry.

"Trussell next appears in Northumberland, created a county about 1644 from Indian district Chickacoan. Here he patented, 14 Oct. 1649, 400 acres on the "souther most side of CHicokolne river," adjoining Mr. John Mottram. On 7 March 1650/1 John Trussell, Gent., added 200 acres adjoining this, one of the headrights being Mary Trussell. Col. John Trussell and Gervase Dodson patented 1000 acres in Northumberland on the southeast side of Chickacone River, adjoining Jacob Coutanceau and Col. Mottram, deceased, 29 Nov. 1658.

"The earliest record of Northumberland County, 4 May 1644, names John Trussell as Commander o Northumberland. He deposed, 20 May 1653, that he was aged 50 or thereabouts. He served as Burgess for the county, 1649, 1651-52, and 1654-55. He was a justice, 1653, vestryman of Chickoan Congregation, Nov. 1653, lieutenant colonel, 1655, and colonel of militia, 1659.

"Administration of the estate of Col. John Trussell, deceased, was granted to Mary Trussell, the relict, 20 Feb. 1659/60. Mary, whose maiden name is not known, married (2), by 10 Feb. 1662/3, Robert Gooch."

Will of George Higgins. Dated 27th of Novem. 1648. "My loving friend Mr John Trussell of Northumberland in Virginia" sole Executor.

This Trussell family record was found in WFT 5-3634. It showed that Franklin M. Trussell of Isle of Wight was the father, but that is not supported by any known record.

1705/6 March 12. William Grady of Stafford County to John Shirley of Northumberland- one moiety (half) of 100 acres located near the head of Coan River, said land first granted to Col. John Trussell and by him assigned to James Claughton, who assigned it to Robert Seck and John Coutanceau, who divided it. Coutanceau then sold his 50 acres to Henry Moseley, who sold it to Jos. Edmunds whose attorney sold it to John Oliver. Oliver died without heirs, and the land escheated and was bought by Robert Wilson who had married Oliver's widow. They sold the land to Walter Grady, whose heir was the said William Grady. Said land located on King's Creek. [Northumberland Co., VA abstracts]

Notes for Mary Claughton:

Mary may have been John's second wife, and is not proven to be Mary Claughton. Her surname is "unknown" or unsupported by known records. She married 2nd Robert Gooch by 10 Feb 1662/3. This theory may have been created based on the following:
