

1860 State Business Directory
John L. Mitchell, Publisher

Bersheba Springs

A post village of Grundy County, in the south-east central part of the State, situated near Collins river, 90 miles south-east from Nashville, 200 from Knoxville, 300 from Memphis, and by stage route 20 miles each from McMinnville and Tracy City.

It is a fashionable summer resort and contains a general store, and an extensive hotel – the property a joint stock company, a steam flouring and saw mill, and several mechanical trades and professions. Resident population of village 100. District 500.

John Armfield, Postmaster

John Armfield, prop'r steam flouring and planning mills.

John Armfield, planter and proprietor brick and lumber yards.

Bersheba Hotel Company, prop'rs. Lumber yard and steam saw mill.

Bersheba Hotel, hotel company prop'rs.

W. G. Brooks, livery stable.

B. S. Cagle, carpenter and blacksmith.

G. W. Davidson, architect, carpenter, and Deputy Postmaster.

G. W. Davidson, sash, blinds and doors.

W. J. Davidson, architect and carpenter.

Wm. Dugan, planter.

Henry Henderson, surveyor.

A. T. Mitchell, carpenter.

A. T. Morgan, billiard room.

M. A. Price, livery stable.

John R. Royal, carpenter.

Thompson & Hardy, general merchants.

Elijah Walker, Justice of Peace.