Samuel's obit reads: "Uncle Sammy Brown, as he was affectionately called by all that knew him, passed away at the home of his son, Gilliam, on the old Gruetli Road near Laager last Thursday morning at 12:30. Samuel was a real mountaineer. He carved his homestead out of the wilderness in the bottom of Bryant's Cove in the headwaters of Little Sequatchie River while his brother Isaac settled on top of the plateau above the same river. One of my earliest recollections of the Brown brothers was their weekly trips in a buggy or buckboard to Tracy, traveling the Brown Hollow Road to bring the products of their mountain farm to market. My Dad and Samuel had a contract, not written or even a verbal one; but such a contract that has now passed on with the old times--just an unspoken understanding that the Bakery would take all the butter and eggs Samuel brought in--winter or summer--prices high, prices low--made no difference. Dad counted on Uncle Sammy's supplies and Uncle Sammy counted on Dad's ready market. Mutual trust and mutual understanding between these men made for a lifetime of pleasant dealing and friendship. Perhaps the first wild honey I was privileged to taste came from Uncle Isaac's place. The old homestead was the scene of a happy family life--eleven children were born and reared there, many of whom did not survive their rugged pioneer father who stayed with his farm until about 1939 when he finally agreed to move to Laager with his son, Gilliam, so that his son could be near his work at Palmer. Samuel was born in Marion County on April 26, 1858. He was a member of the Congregational Methodist Church and a deeply religious man who owned a well-thumbed Bible. Surviving Uncle Sammy are two sons, Gilliam, of Laager, Frank of Kittanning, Pa.; three daughters--Mrs. Joe Nunley of Tracy City, Mrs. Virgil Almond of Whitwell, and Mrs. Henry Bryant of Chattanooga; forty-nine grandchildren, and seventy-two great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held at Biven's Chapel with Reverend Ed Nunley officiating. F.P. Ewton and Sons were in charge of the services."

The "Sequatchie Valley News" printed the following obit: "Samuel L. Brown, 91, died at his home at Laager, Friday. He was born in this county in 1858 and spent his entire life in this and Grundy county. He is survived by five children, 48 grandchildren and 62 great-grandchildren. His daughters are Mrs. Joe Nunley, of Tracy City; Mrs. Virgel Almond of Whitwell and Mrs. Henry Bryant, of Suck Creek mountain, and his sons are Frank Brown, Kittanning, Pa., and Gilliam Brown, of Laager. Services were at the Bivins' Chapel Methodist Church, Rev. Jim Nunley officiating, with interment in the Burkett Chapel cemetery."

Job, age 7, was living with his parents and siblings in District 5 of Marion County during the 1860 census.

Job died in Grundy County of pneumonia.

Notes for Delitha Speegle:

During the Marion County census of 1860, Delitha (who was called Telitha in this census) was listed as 4 years old, living with her parents and siblings.

Delitha's mother died somewhere between 1860 and 1870, and during the 1870 census Delitha was living with her father, sister and cousins who would soon become her step-siblings. Delitha was listed as 16 years old at this census.

Delitha and Job were married in 1872. Her name is listed as Delithia on the marriage license.

The minutes of the Primitive Baptist Church of Fall Creek state they received "one experience--Telitte Ross". This was in November 1873. The April 1876 minutes state Deletha Ross was baptized. The minutes later state she left "by letter" but no date is given. Delitha's in-laws, John and Nancy Ross, were also members of this church.

Job died in January of 1880 and at the time of the census, Delitha, at age 23, was living in Marion County with her brother James as head of household. Her four children, ranging in age from 7 to 6 months are with her. Obviously this was a hard period for Delitha with a new baby in December and her husband dying in January.

McGovern had exchanged his place here in Tracy City, with the widow of one of Ross' sons for a place near Palmer. During the 1870 Marion County census, he, age 12, was living with his parents and older brother in the 4th District.

When the 1880 Marion County census was taken, Samuel, age 22, was living with his parents in District 2. His brother Washington was living next door with his family.

Samuel and Mary Jane were married by Jas. M. Lockhart, JP.

By the time of the 1900 census, Sam, age 42, and Jane, age 39, were farming in District 2 of Marion County. This census states they had been married 19 years and had 11 children with 9 living. This was John age 18, Frank age 17, Thomas age 16, Mimia A., age 14, Benj. H. age 12, Lou age 10, Dan W., age 8, Dellie age 2 and Gilliam age

During the 1910 Marion County census, Sam, age 52, and Mary J., age 49, were living in District 1 next door to his widowed mother. This census states they had been married 30 years and had 11 children with 9 living. The children at home were Angeline age 24, Webster, age 18, Della age 12 and Gilliam age 10. Their daughter Lucille, called Lou and 20 years old was next door with her grandmother.

At the time of the 1930 Marion County census, Samuel, age 71, and Mary J., age 69, were living on Little Sequatchie Cove Road in District 7. His brother, Isaac, was living with them and Samuel's daughter, Della Bryant was living next door.

Samuel's obit reads: "Uncle Sammy Brown, as he was affectionately called by all that knew him, passed away at the home of his son, Gilliam, on the old Gruetli Road near Laager last Thursday morning at 12:30. Samuel was a real mountaineer. He carved his homestead out of the wilderness in the bottom of Bryant's Cove in the headwaters of Little Sequatchie River while his brother Isaac settled on top of the plateau above the same river. One of my earliest recollections of the Brown brothers was their weekly trips in a buggy or buckboard to Tracy, traveling the Brown Hollow Road to bring the products of their mountain farm to market. My Dad and Samuel had a contract, not written or even a verbal one; but such a contract that has now passed on with the old times--just an unspoken understanding that the Bakery would take all the butter and eggs Samuel brought in--winter or summer--prices high, prices low--made no difference. Dad counted on Uncle Sammy's supplies and Uncle Sammy counted on Dad's ready market. Mutual trust and mutual understanding between these men made for a lifetime of pleasant dealing and friendship. Perhaps the first wild honey I was privileged to taste came from Uncle Isaac's place. The old homestead was the scene of a happy family life--eleven children were born and reared there, many of whom did not survive their rugged pioneer father who stayed with his farm until about 1939 when he finally agreed to move to Laager with his son, Gilliam, so that his son could be near his work at Palmer. Samuel was born in Marion County on April 26, 1858. He was a member of the Congregational Methodist Church and a deeply religious man who owned a well-thumbed Bible. Surviving Uncle Sammy are two sons, Gilliam, of Laager, Frank of Kittanning, Pa.; three daughters--Mrs. Joe Nunley of Tracy City, Mrs. Virgil Almond of Whitwell, and Mrs. Henry Bryant of Chattanooga; forty-nine grandchildren, and seventy-two great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held at Biven's Capel with Reverend Ed Nunley officiating. F.P. Ewton and Sons were in charge of the services."

The "Sequatchie Valley News" printed the following obit: "Samuel L. Brown, 91, died at his home at Laager, Friday. He was born in this county in 1858 and spent his entire life in this and Grundy county. He is survived by five children, 48 grandchildren and 62 great-grandchildren. His daughters are Mrs. Joe Nunley, of Tracy City; Mrs. Virgel Almond of Whitwell and Mrs. Henry Bryant, of Suck Creek mountain, and his sons are Frank Brown, Kittanning, Pa., and Gilliam Brown, of Laager. Services were at the Bivins' Chapel Methodist Church, Rev. Jim Nunley officiating, with interment in the Burkett Chapel cemetery."

He married Samantha Chambers Abt. 1883 (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.). She was born 02 Sep 1865 (Source: Walker Cemetery tombstone.), and died 21 Nov 1940 (Source: Walker Cemetery tombstone.).

with 8 living. The children at home were Maude age 20, Roy age 17, Leta age 15, Victor age 14, Belle age 10, Chaarley age 5 and Chester age 2.

During the 1920 Marion County census, Will, age 56, and Samantha, were living in Whitwell and he was working as a coal miner. Their household consisted of Chester age 12, Victor age 21, Belle age 19 and her husband, Bass Narrmore, age 21.

Dola Schild Tylor sent the following articles from "The Sequatchie Valley News": "Wm. Ross cut his brother, George, with a knife in several places, and he is expected to die at any time. It all came about over some mountain land. Bill wanted to buy George's interest and George refused to sell, and that enraged Bill and then while under the influence of drink he stabbed his brother without just cause, and went to Kentucky, where George lived to get to He walked through the mountains from Kentucky to Whitwell, and it is very reliably reported, had sent a doctor and an attorney up there to wait on his brother, and to see if he can't get it fixed up to avoid a just punishment in the courts of Kentucky. We think he ought to be landed behind the walls of the prison. George Ross married the daughter of David Layne, one of Marion County's most respected citizens and the feeling in the family is running very high. Just What the outcome in this....we can only wait and....."

Wm Ross was out to see ye writer today to have same statement made in the News last week corrected. He said that he was wronged to a certain extent by the publication of his and brother, George's racket, asnd asked to have ye writer to correct it, and here it is in a nutshell. He said he went to Kentucky to get his brother, George to sign a deed to his brother, Sam Ross, for a 100-acre tract of land and didn't go to buy for himself, and that he didn't walk back through the mountains as was reported, but came in on the train to Tracy and walked from there to Whitwell, and he stated that he did cut his brother, George, three of four times, but did it in self-defence by kicking his brother's knife out of his hand, and that he and his brother were both under the influence of drink. After hearing Mr. Ross's statement, if true, then he would be justified in his action. They have got these matters settled between the two brothers. I am always ready to correct any and all statements made by me if incorrect. We never knew the true facts in this case until Mr. Ross came today in perfect good humor and asked ye writer to correct the matter. All we had gathered was from the general public and report. True happenings and true facts are what we want to give to the reading public. It's hard, indeed, for a person sometimes, unless they witness an occurrence, to give a true report. Where there is a great number of witnesses to a scrap in a public place, it is hard indeed to put them all on the witness stand and get them to tell the same story. Hardly two out of ten will tell the same tale, so we have to be very careful about getting reports. We give it as we have heard it told to us, and if any part of the statements made should be untrue, please do like Mr. Ross, call and confess and give the true facts as it occurred. I don't wish to wrong any man, if I know myself. Ross said liquor caused all the trouble. I agree with you that liquor is a mighty thing."

Notes for Hubert Hargis:

Hubert was born and grew up at the homeplace of his parents in Gruetli. He is listed on the 1920 Grundy County census as Morris, but none in the family has any idea why this name is used. It was not Hubert's name.

He attended schools at Swiss Colony and Mount Vernon. He loved to hunt and during the Depression kept the family supplied with fresh meat.

Hubert was in the Armed Forces during WW11 and served in Australia. He was still there in 1944 when his mother died. The second memory of my childhood is of Hubert's coming home from the war. He came walking down the drive at my grandfather's house and I had no idea who this man was. It was absolutely stunning to me to see my mother and Aunt Jossie running to this stranger, arms outstretched and hugging him. I suppose my shock at this affection to a "stranger" is the reason I never forgot this homecoming.

Hubert was always a dear uncle and considered a second father by my brothers and myself. He gave us a wonderful BIG tricycle when we were small that was never forgotten and I can remember him giving my brothers boxing gloves and attempting to teach them to box.

Hubert and Essie Jean were married for about a year and then divorced.

Hubert worked with his brother Jasper in the timber industry and farmed.

My brothers and I must have really been pest when Hubert and Aline were dating. It was the delight of our lives to be allowed to polish his shoes. For that we received a whole quarter!

Hubert and Aline lived the remainder of their lives in Gruetli. As he grew older, Hubert's heart began to trouble him. He had heart by-pass surgery twice and since he seemed to have die in his sleep, probably his heart gave out.
