Jennie Greene Family

Jennie Chitwood was born in East Tennessee in 1867. She came to Coffee County, where she married James M. Lowery in 1889. Children Lena and Nellie were born to this marriage. Mr. Lowery was a sheriff, and was shot in the back in the line of duty, and later died of these wounds. In about 1897 Jennie remarried William Greene, who was 23 years her senior. They lived just north of Pelham near the Willis and Patton families. Jennie and William Greene had children Willie, Roy, Grady and Vera. Mr. Greene died about 1905.

Twice widowed, Jennie was in difficult circumstances. Local tradition holds that she was courted by bachelor Jim Patton, who lived with his unmarried sisters Kate and Dora at the old homeplace of Gen. Alexander Patton. Jim, who was approximately 13 years younger than Jennie, "took unfair advantage" of her, and she shot him in the leg. Jennie became pregnant, and Jim had to wear a wooden leg for the rest of his life. He died in 1938 at the age of 58 and is buried in the Patton Cemetery near Pelham. Jennie's youngest child was Blanche, born in 1906. Records indicate that Jennie later married G.A. Holler of Winchester. After the death of her youngest child she moved to Chicago to live with her son Grady until her death in 1952.

Blanche V. Greene married Hop Taylor Hayes in 1926. They lived at Oak Grove in Franklin County, where their oldest child, Ralph, was born in 1926. Children Betty and Alton followed before Blanche's death at the age of only 29. Ralph Hayes joined the merchant marines, and finally settled in moved to Indiana where he sustained severe burns and died in the 1980's. Alton Hayes lives in Franklin County. Betty Hayes married Dr. L.P. Laughlin, had four children, and lives in Brentwood where she is a jewelry designer.

Of the other children of Jennie Greene, we know that Lena Lowery lived in New York in the 1930's; Nellie Lowery married Ed Pack, had a large family and lived in Sewanee until her death. Roy Greene became a schoolteacher but died at Pelham when he was only 24 years old. Grady Greene was a telephone company executive in Chicago for many years until his death in the early 1960's. Vera Greene married L.J. Nelson and lived in Washington, D.C.
